Andrew Lopez

Representative Transactions

- Represents companies with their formation, financings, shareholder agreements, international supply and distribution agreements, software development, technology licensing, manufacturing, supply and OEM agreements and various other commercial transactions.

- Represents a consulting and merchant banking advisory firm on various strategic, legal and operational issues related to its operation of and investment in casino projects.

- Represents a medical device company on corporate, commercial and operational matters.

- Represented Saratoga Harness Racing's acquisition of Fitzgerald's casino in Black Hawk, Colorado.

- Represents physicians in the formation, buy-in and operation of medical and surgical practices.

- Represented a Denver-based manufacturer of electrical connections for use in hazardous environments in sale of business to leading international manufacturer of electrical and electronic products.

- Represented a publicly held environmental technology products and services company in connection with its public and private offerings, international and domestic mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, stock exchange compliance, corporate governance and general corporate and commercial matters, including a $30 million registered direct offering, a $27 million confidentially marketed public offering and a corporate reorganization in Delaware.

- Represented a family office/private equity fund in connection with various hedge fund and real estate investments, debt financings and refinancings for real estate projects, including Fannie Mae loans, and development projects.

- Counseled medical documentation software and services company in connection with its private placement and debt financings and corporate governance matters.

- Represented Fortune 20 Company in the healthcare industry in connection with its acquisitions of a medical waste company.

- Represented multiple private equity and hedge funds on organizational and compliance matters including drafting and structuring operating/partnership agreements, offering memorandums, subscription agreements, management agreements, service agreements and assignment agreements.

- Assisted in the reorganization and restructuring of several fund complexes, including a Brazilian hybrid fund.

- Assisted in the formation of international fund of funds and an Australian-American joint private equity fund including structuring master-feeder and domestic-international elements.

- Represented the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of Golden Telecom Inc. in the closing of its $4 billion offer acquisition by Open Joint Stock Company Vimpel Communications.

- Represented Silver Point Capital in the auction and $250 million sale of its portfolio company, FiberMark, Inc., a specialty paper industrial company including its United Kingdom subsidiary.